

DEED OF AFFIDAVIT

Completed affidavits will be retained permanently by the Commission. Copies thereof shall be made at the time of registration.

When a person fails to furnish complete copies as required by a previous law or the United States Federal Statutes, committed to a crime the Commission will advise the State Board of Elections, but the failure will be reported for a possible civil sanction and may also be referred to appropriate law enforcement officials.

The law officer should verify the accuracy of the facts of the affidavit of the person whose right to vote is being asserted or denied. It is the responsibility of the law officer to determine if the person is qualified to vote. If a person fails to furnish complete copies as required by a previous law or the United States Federal Statutes, committed to a crime the Commission will advise the State Board of Elections, but the failure will be reported for a possible civil sanction and may also be referred to appropriate law enforcement officials.
