

Josephine Van Laarhoven And Carl Reinhold Marry

Wearing a net over satin gown with long sleeves pointed at the wrist, Miss Josephine Van Laarhoven became the bride of Carl Reinhold, Wednesday morning, June 5, in a ceremony that took place in the Holy Rosary church in Medford, the Rev. Gregory Reuter officiating.

Completing the bride's attire was a full length veil of illusion and a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss LaVerne Van Laarhoven as maid of honor; bridesmaid was Orvilla Boehlen and Shirley Rothamer was flower girl. Miss Van Laarhoven and Miss Boehlen, who wore gowns of blue, had matching blusher veils and carried gladioli bouquets. The flower girl was dressed in pink net. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

Lawrence Strobach acted as best man, John Boehlen was usher, and Paul Bach jr. was page boy.

Among the guests from out of town who were present at the reception at the bride's parents' home were John Van Laarhoven, Mrs. Walter Wagner, Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Laarhoven, Dearborn, Mich.; William Decken, Oelwein, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Decker, Waterloo, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Art Docter, Portage. A wedding dance was given at Spreen's pavilion at Lake Esadore.

The couple will make their home on the groom's farm in the town of Medford.
